HOW ABOUT ART?

Beaux Arts hosts a summer art camp for children ages 5-12, June 10-Aug. 16. Children create projects and learn techniques such as painting, sculpting, paper mache, ceramics and drawing. They also get the chance to tour the Lowe Art Museum. Funds from the camp support children's art education programs such as Hands On, which benefits Miami-Dade Title 1 schools.

Camp is held at the Beaux Arts Center for Art at the Lowe museum. Two-week sessions are $450. Visit beauxartsmiami.org/art-camp-classes.

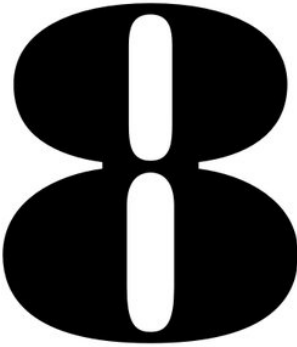

SHOP ABROAD

Travel in style with Couturista Travel, a travel shopping agency co-founded by Miami native

Myriam Angulo as an extension of DiVine Tours. Trips cater to those interested in high-end fashion with itineraries that focus on style and culture. The inaugural trip, Tuscany Couture, includes an eight-night stay at the Gallery Art Hotel in Florence, transportation, gourmet meals, a visit to the Salvatore Ferragamo Museum and VIP access to Sergio Rossi, Gucci, Armani, Emilio Pucci and others. Future destinations include Miami and Mexico. Visit couturistatravel.com.
